NARRATIVE:

Conrad Wallace has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include possession of dangerous weapons, carrying a concealed weapon on person and vehicle, vehicle theft, battery on a peace officer, burglary, terrorist threats, theft, petty theft with prior convictions, grand theft person with prior convictions, DUI, possession of narcotic controlled substances, obstruction of an officer, driving with suspended license and inflicting corporal injury on spouse. He has served multiple incarcerations, the longest being a 4 year term for grand theft person with prior convictions. Wallace was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on November 14, 2011. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in April 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Wallace qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for grand theft person with prior convictions is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
